MAI-STAR

In the Emerald Empire, a special place is set apart from the often-harsh realities of feudal life. Within the "floating world" of the geisha house, great artists are the center of attention: beautiful women who are masters of art, music, and conversation. The prettier and more skilled in her arts a geisha might be, the more popularity she gains and the greater her opportunities for success. But to win such a prize is not easy; a successful geisha must find ways to distinguish herself, to promote her own name over her rivals - or even sabotage them. Even within the Emerald Empire's peaceful domain of the "floating world", enmity between geisha can be as bitter as a samurai feud. In Mai-Star, 3-6 players take on the roles of different geishas and compete to earn the most prestigious title. Scheduled to ship in January 2014. NOTE: This item is sold to retailers in full displays. Please contact your retailer for availability.

PANZER GRENADIER: EASTERN FRONT

On June 22, 1941, German, Romanian, and other Axis forces launched a surprise attack against the Soviet Union. This touched off the most vicious war the planet has ever known, as millions of troops fought fanatically in a war of annihilation that ended only when the Red Army of Workers and Peasants planted its banners on the Reichstag in Berlin. Eastern Front is a Panzer Grenadier game based on the opening year of this intense struggle, with 112 separate scenarios focusing on the actual battles waged in the Soviet Union during 1941. Scheduled to ship in September 2013.

KURSK - BURNING TIGERS

While the SS assault the Kursk salient from the south, German plans had the Ninth Army hurling three panzer corps against the bulge's northern flank. With weeks to prepare, the Soviet 13th Army had dug in with multiple lines of anti-tank guns, and once the Germans broke through they had to face the Second Tank Army. A stand-alone game in the Panzer Grenadier series, Kursk: Burning Tigers features 40 scenarios focusing on this long-planned offensive. Scheduled to ship in November 2013.

APL 0321 $64.99

PANZER GRENADIER:
LIBERATION 1944

The liberation of France began with the Allied invasion on D-Day, 6 June 1944. From Sword, Gold, and Juno beaches, British Army troops fought their way across the hedgerows and rolling green hills, driving back Hitler's Wehrmacht and SS forces. A complete game in the Panzer Grenadier series, Liberation 1944 features 41 new scenarios covering the fierce struggles of His Majesty's forces through Operations Overlord, Goodwood, and Bluecoat. Scheduled to ship in September 2013.

ARGONNE - THE FINAL OFFENSIVE
After successful offensives in August 1918, Marshal Foch ordered an all-new offensive into the Meuse-Argonne with no less an objective than the encirclement of the entire German Army. Steady progress was made until the attackers encountered the depth of the Argonne, one of the densest forests in France. It would be a tough slog until the Americans broke into the open. Meuse-Argonne utilizes a new adaptation of the popular Fire & Movement folio system, modified to specifically model World War 1 operations.

A French victory will open the possibility of splitting the allies; an allied victory will threaten the flank of the other French columns. 42CM 'BIG BERTHA' AND GERMAN SIEGE ARTILLERY OF WWI

In the first days of World War I, Germany unveiled a new weapon - the mobile 42cm (16.5 inch) M-Gerat howitzer. At the time, it was the largest artillery piece of its kind in the world and a closely guarded secret. "Big Bertha", as it was christened by German soldiers after Bertha von Krupp, easily destroyed French and Belgian forts, helping set the stage for trench warfare. Scheduled to ship in January 2014. FE 2 VS ALBATROS I-IV

In the spring of 1916, the deployment of the RFC's FE 2 helped wrest aerial dominance from Imperial Germany's Fokker Eindecker monoplanes, and then contributed to retaining it. However, by autumn German reorganization saw the birth of the Jagdstaffeln and the arrival of the new Albatros D scout. Thus, for the remainder of 1916 and well into the next year an epic struggle for aerial superiority raged above the horrors of the Somme and Passchendaele battlefields, pitting the FE 2 against the better-armed and faster Albatros scouts. Scheduled to ship in January 2014. OSP DUE055$18.95

HONG KONG 1941-45

On December 8, 1941, as part of the simultaneous attack against Pearl Harbor, the Imperial Japanese Army (IJA) invaded the Philippines, Thailand, and Malaysia and the British colony of Hong Kong. After only 18 days of battle the defenders, a weak, undermanned brigade was overwhelmed by a superior force of two battle-hardened IJA divisions. What makes the battle of Hong Kong was not the scale, but the intensity of this battle fought not only by the British Army, Navy, and Air Force, but also Canadians, Hong Kong's own defense force, the Indian Army, as well as many civilians.
