

Baker Street Clue Card

Clue: The worn trousers knees of Mr. Spaulding

Lead: Mr. Spaulding appears very poor. Possibly having those parts a very long time	Lead: The knees are worn as if he spent time kneeling and working on them	Lead: It's likely he gets trousers through the pawn store, as people sell their clothing to Mr. Wilson
--	--	---

Baker Street Clue Card

Clue: A curious spot in the store, now empty, where it seems lots of merchandise should be

Lead: It was moved across the room	Lead: It was moved out the back door	Lead: It was moved out a large window near the side of the store
---	---	---

Baker Street Clue Card

Clue: Mr. Spaulding seemed momentarily blinded when he walked into the room

Lead: He was somewhere dark, perhaps a cellar	Lead: He was napping in the back room, clearly not doing his job	Lead: It's almost, if a flash of light had blinded him
--	---	---

Baker Street Clue Card

Clue: An interesting customer paying close attention to the investigators

Lead: He might be watching the investigators because he knows something of the league	Lead: He might be watching because he knows Vincent Spaulding	Lead: He might be watching because he knows Mr. Wilson
--	--	---