KURSK 1943

In the summer of 1943, recoiling from defeat at Stalingrad, Hitler conducted a limited objective offensive to eliminate the Soviet Kursk salient. Operating a classic pincer attack of the kind that succeeded during the 1942 Kharkov campaign, he hoped that the resulting heavy losses inflicted on the Red Army would give the Wehrmacht time to recover its strength. Focusing on the northern front of the battle with Generaloberst Walter Model's forces pitted against General Rokossovsky's Central Front, this volume explores both the German offensive and the Soviet counteroffensive.
